LOCAL HAPPENINGS

IN AND ABOUT TOWN.

Picked Up Here And There By The Chieftain.

Foot ball Saturday.
Attorney Lake was down from Joseph Monday.

Foot ball Saturday, between Wallowa and Enterprise.

Sam Adams was out from Innaha Monday on a business trip.

Mrs. J. W. Rankin spent Christmas in Joseph with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Griggs were passengers on Saturday's stage for Elgin.

Wilford Green began this week to learn the printers trade in the CHIEFTAIN office.

Assessor J. H. McCubbin was up from his ranch below Lostine Monday on a business trip.

A. D. Buzzard and Isaac Bingaman of Flora were in the city Friday and Saturday on business.

Henry Haas who has been spending the holiday season at home will return to Lower Innaha in a few days to remain the rest of the winter.

This week we have a new correspondent from Prairie creek. Let others come forward. We want news from every section of the county.

Rev. Green informs us that his series of meetings will begin on Sunday, Jan. 12, instead of the first Sunday in the month, as was published last week.

The CHIEFTAIN is in receipt of a copy of the Boise Statesman of Dec. 26 in which there is an account of a Christmas game of foot ball in that city with a team from Payette. In the line up of players appears the names of Clarence Luttrell as right half back and Elbert Luttrell as left guard. It was a hard game in deep mud, neither side scoring. The Luttrell boys played in the celebrated Enterprise team three years ago and are good players. If there are going to be made any points in a foot ball game it is certain that with Clarence as a half back his team will make their share.

J. S. Downey is managing the Western tour of the great Hypnotist of India, Dr. Duchesne and is arranging to appear in the Enterprise Opera House, about Jan. 7th. He promises the Enterprise people a feast, as Dr. Duchesne is considered the greatest hypnotic performer on the American stage and is direct from India.

The Joseph foot ball team passed through town Tuesday morning, enroute for Lostine, where they met a team from that town during the afternoon. The game resulted in a score of 12 to 0 in favor of Lostine. This makes it even between the two teams. Joseph defeated the Lostine team last week.

A few friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bate Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Bate's birthday. The evening was spent in whist playing and Mrs. Bate gave prizes to the best and poorest records. Mrs. Roe received the first prize and Mrs. Bate herself the booby prize.

It is reported that J. D. Cottingham who was taken out to La Grande last week, waived examination and his bonds placed at $500. It is stated by his relatives that the charge against him is false and simply a piece of spite work with a woman at the bottom of it.

Chas. Copeland, of Hailye, has invented a machine for counting sheep and registering the count. It will count and register from one sheep to 2,000 and then can be re-set and complete another count of any number up to 10,000.

L. B. Emmons and wife and Al Emmons and family returned Saturday from Mud creek where they spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Emmons. They report a fine time and plenty of dancing.

The Homan boys recieved a telephone message, Monday, from their father at Astoria, stating that their brother Watson was very sick. Painless and Arthur started for his bedside immediately.

The return game of foot ball between the Enterprise and Wallowa teams, will be played in this city next Saturday afternoon. It promises to be the best one of the season.

Married:—At Grouse, Dec. 23, 1901, at 12 o'clock at the residence of C. D. Slow, J. W. McCaully and Miss Minnie Slow, both of Grouse. Rev. Smith officiating.

Geo. B. Robertson of Lower Innaha was in this city a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Foster and S. L. Magill were up from Lostine today.

Frank Ott was fined $20 in the Recorders Court, Thursday, for permitting gambling in his saloon.

Just the same number of marriages were recorded in this county during 1901 as were during 1900.

E. H. Carman has sold his ranch to Peter Baudan and will move to a ranch he owns at Whatecom, Wash.

The game of foot ball last Saturday between the teams from Joseph and Lostine resulted in favor of Joseph by a score of 5 to 0.

Julius Vowinkle, who is working for Ed Weatherly in his sheep camp in the Paradise country, was in the city Tuesday.

MARRIED—In this city, December 31, at the Methodist parsonage, Mr. Edward J. Avery and Miss Ida Wortman, Rev J. C. Walker officiating.

The County Court has sued the Range stove men for $200 on account of the failure to take out a county license to peddle. They are required to appear before Justice Voris on Jan. 11

Married--Wagner, Gift.

Miss Minnie M. Gift and William H. Wagner of Enterprise, Oregon, were married at the home of the bride in Smith Centre Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. W. J. Meredith, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated. None were present except immediate relatives. They will leave the latter part of the week for the groom's home in Oregon where they will reside.

The groom is the son of J. C. Wagner of Crystal Plains and formerly lived here. He is now engaged in the stock business in the northwest and is quite successful in his operations.

The bride is well known to Smith county people generally. She has been in the millinery business here for several years and had built up a successful trade. She is a daughter of John Gift of the Crystal Plains country.—Smith County (Kan.) Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. Wagner arrived in this city Tuesday evening and were met by a number of friends at Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Longs, who served a bounteous supper in their honor.

Marriages for 1901.
